THE NEW UNITARIAN MINISTER.-The Rev. Rufus Puinam Cutler, who is now filling the pulpit f the Unitarian Church in this city, though a stranger to most of our community, comes among us with the highest credentials as to standing, culture, ability, and everythin, that constitutes the standing at Yale College, and subsequently at the Cambridge Divinity School For several years he filled the pulpit of the First Unitarian Courch of an Francisco, with great ability and success. His ealth failing he was obliged to resign his position here. Having recovered his health and returned to the active duties of his profession, he was induced to accept an invitation from the church in this city, for the tempo , y supply of the pulpit. For over two months the regular worship rs in this Church, with many of ther denominations, have enjoyed the rere opportunity of hearing his eviquent, logical

Gifted by nature with all the concemitants that nake the finished oretor, 26 has, besides, been horoughly prepared by culture for the exalted eason. In his preach ng, he seeks aly to dispense the "Word of Life" as contained in the Gospel, and entire'y eschews politics. He comes smong a suffering people with the "Gospel of peace ad good will towards all men," and while sovorasing, with the boldness that comes of conviction, the distinctive doctrines of the concentration to which he belong, he never does so offensively-according rs the same right of private judgment in matters of religion, with perfect fr. ed)m of thought and worship, which he claims for himself. He hamade so favorable an impression on the church Foster, Gilman, Taggart and McFarland were wont to minis er in sacred things, that an effort wil be made to retain him permanently as its pastor. He would certainly prove a great acquisition to the Sterary, social and religious circles of our city The louth needs men of large minds and comprehensive views, to sounteract unfavorable impress one at the North in reference to our scalar condition. On sunday morning last, Mr Cutige delivered very eloquent and impressive discourse from St. James' Ep stle, chapter I, verse 27, which was intened to with wrapt attention by a delighted audience.

THE STATE COURT-HON. R. B. CARPENTER, RESIDING-TURSDAY. March 2 .- There was nothng done in the Court of Fessions beyond the orzation of the juries. In the Common Pleas the Town Issue Docket was sounded, and many cases alspos dof. To day the court will bear the case of he State vs. Gabriel Levy, indicted for murder.

THE UNITED STATES COURT, March 2 .-HOM. GEORGE S. BRYAN, PRESIDING -The following assignees were approved of: James M. Brown, D. J Winn, J. W. Burbidge, John A. McRee, Louis Mc-Lain and James Fatterson. The petit on of Wyman, eferred to Registrar Clawson to rep rt, &c. It was ordered on the petition of J. A. Quackenbush, creditor, f r adjudication of involuntary bankruptcy, that A. W. & C. C. Thames, debtors, show cause on Tuesday, the 16th instant, at the Federal Courthouse at Charleston, at 11 o'clook, why the prayer of the petition should not be granted, and that said debtor be enjoined from transferring or selling, &c., any property not exempted from the operations of the bankrupt act. It was also ordered that D. Lopez & Sons do show cause on the 4th instant, why the order ob tained by D. Lopez & Sen should not be set aside and the said judgment creditor be allowed to file an answer to petition of D. Lopez & son, and in the mea nwhile the assignee of the said bankrupt do suspend the performance of said order. The case of the steamship James A. Ga yagainst the steamship Sherma , libel for salvage, was taken up and occu pled the attention of the court up to the hour of ad

FRA DIAVOLO.-The theatre, last night, was well filled, although not so crowded as it would doubtless have been at any other season. Fra Diavolo was better put upon the stage than we could have expected. There were the usual cuttings to which we have to submit, but we must enter a pro test against the omission of Agnes la Jouvencelle The orchestra was generally well in hand, never lacking in energy, but wanting often in delicacy of ccompaniment. Miss Clara Lang, as Zerlina, sang with especial sweetness in the second act, and Mad Frederici Lady Allcash) sang throughout in excellent taste and with considerable skill. Himmer, as Fra Diavolo, displayed his usual energy and mobility of features. He wanted grace in the act, but sang the broad phrases of the grand sir, in Life Insurance Company, has received the appoint- the third act, with force and dramatic expression. The make up of the two brigands was capital, and their acting and singing excellent. Lord Alleast (having abandoned the traditional British white coat and pearl buttons) sang with great ability all that was left to him. Lorenzo (the Captain Jenks of the opera) looked pretty and marched well. Upon the whole, the opera went off remark bly well, and we trust that Dr Freschutz, which is announced for this evening, may be played to a house crowded to
